DIRECTORY INFORMATION PRIVACY REQUEST

According to Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), educational entities have the right to disclose certain “directory information” to anyone who inquires and usually includes, but is not limited to other institutions, prospective employers, or family members. This “directory information” includes:

1. Name
2. Dates of Attendance
3. Enrollment status (full-time or part-time)
4. Classification
5. Major and minor field of study
6. Degrees and awards received
7. Participation in officially recognized activities and sports
8. Photograph or other images of the student

FERPA also allows, with your consent, the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board to disclose student information, including the number of credit hours taken at other institutions, to a variety of parties including other educational institutions. This information is typically used to gather demographic statistics aimed at improving educational programs.

As a student, you have the right to request this information not be released. This request must be made during the first twelve (12) class days of a fall or spring semester, or the first four (4) class days of a summer term. The request will remain in effect until written request is submitted by student to Admissions and Records to cancel this authorization.
